CHAPTER FOUR

Chapter 4 Via® is inspired by the sun-washed courtyards, weathered plaster walls, and quiet romance of Spanish Revival architecture. Inspired by the timeless homes that line California's historic neighborhoods from an era where architecture was crafted with artistry and intention. Arched passageways, hand-painted details, terra cotta rooftops, and layered textures designed to grow more beautiful with time.

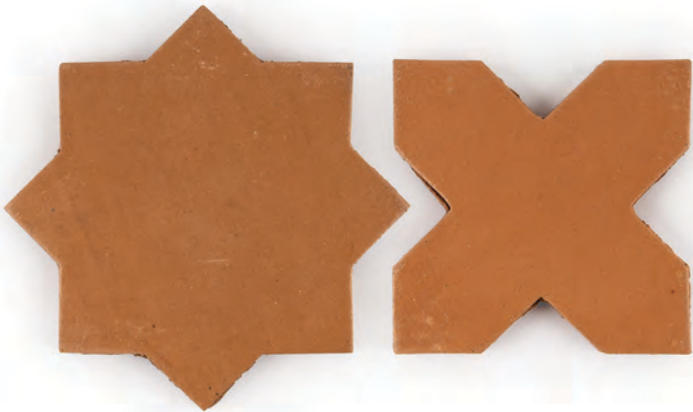

At the heart of the collection are authentic terra cotta tiles produced in Tecate, Mexico, complemented by decorative tiles produced by artisans in Los Angeles, California. Handmade-look porcelain field tiles and old-world inspired glass mosaics complete the chapter, balancing classic appearance with the performance needed for today's homes. Via embraces the soul of Spanish Revival design through warm, storied craftsmanship. Equally timeless and versatile, it feels at home in restored Spanish bungalows, modern Mediterranean retreats, and contemporary California interiors.
